Sewing Machines.

To Clothiers, Tailors, &c.

NOW IS THE TIME, during the dull season, and before the hurry of business, to introduce the Sewing Machines. An investment of $125 in a Sewing Machine will procure more clear profit than a much larger sum invested in any other way. Having settled all suits against our Machines, there is not a shadow of claim against them. The Excelsior and Dorcas machines, both in bringing out at least, we have proceeded in the United States Court, having jury trials in separate Courts, and we have come out triumphantly. Next the Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker, are expected to come off this month. We therefore caution the public not to purchase the infringing Machines. If they do not desire to escape litigation, for we shall claim our rights.

I. M. SINGER & CO.

Sewing Machines.

The great and peculiar advantage in Singer's Sewing Machine is this:

One Machine will perform every kind of work perfectly by simply changing the Needle and Thread; the machines are simple in their operation, strong, durable, and not liable to get out of order.

All who wish to purchase, and the public in general, are invited to call at No. 41 Broad street, Bangor.

Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Lime,

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

TESTIMONIAL.

Let all read the following, which is but one of the many testimonials being constantly received:

Dea. Wilbor—Dear Sir—I have found in the course of a long and extensive practice, that the seeds of Consumption are by no means to be found as arising from a few individual causes, but that any serious draft upon the physical constitution may be the occasion in that prostrate condition which induces disease. Thus in fever, in severe colds, and in rheumatic affections, those great chambers of the thorax (frame) the lungs, being perhaps the most exposed and sensitive organs of the human organization, are made to be the principal sufferers, and the left lung, which is smaller than the right, is generally the principal seat of disease. Consumptions consists of such an alteration of the air passages as prevents a free circulation in the matter of respiration as is necessary to pass air in and out of each cell of the chest. While the natural constitution of the lungs continues it is impossible to contract the disease known as consumption.

In a series of long practice, I find Cod Liver Oil a great and efficient agent. Attracted to see your notice of this article prepared by you, and known as Pure Cod Liver Oil and Lime. I instantly realized the propriety of your combination, being for years an experimental chemist, and well knowing the medical properties of the Lime, which are regenerating and healing, and immediately important agents in the treatment of Consumption.

I accordingly applied your remedy, and in five months from the time of its first application, found the result most encouraging. Since the first trial, I have depended almost entirely on all consumptive cases upon your Cod Liver Oil and Lime. I believe from its medical qualities to be a healing and restorative, and that the Lime assists in assisting the process of reformation of the diseased cells of the lungs which have decayed from various causes. Moreover, I believe, after a careful perusal of your preparation, and myself that it not only answers the immediate want of the physician, as regards a restorative agent, but also as to sustenance, inconsistently strengthening the rest of the system, and thereby giving it a firmness to resist what is wanted, viz: the means of sustaining the body while the vegetable cure is effected.

Having carefully tested these facts to my entire satisfaction, as an extended practice, I do not hesitate to say to all consumptive invalids—Try Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime.

This lady has traveled through the principal cities of the United States, and is acknowledged by the scientific and professional men, to be superior to any Clairvoyant that ever appeared. She entrances herself, and can see any thing transpiring in all parts of the world, and describes persons and places. Also, advice given in law cases, business matters, matrimony, &c., &c. Her powers have enabled her to perform some of the most astonishing cures of diseases that have been pronounced incurable by physicians. She can see the workings of the physical system as clearly as to be able to describe the patient's feelings, the nature and locality of the disease, either present or absent. Her medicines are purely vegetable, being roots and herbs. All her prescriptions carefully put up by Dr. MAIN, at her residence, No. 16 Prospect street, Boston.

Muriate of Lime!

The high price of the special manures, Guano, &c., first led to the composition of a fertilizer which should combine all their good qualities, but which more should place it within the reach of the poorest of the cultivators of the soil. The increased demand of last season, together with the satisfactory testimony of many who have fully tested its efficacy, leads the manufacturer to believe that the object has been obtained in the Muriate of Lime, and has induced him to extend the facilities for its manufacture. It has been tried upon almost every variety of soil, for as especially adapted to Cereal Plants, Grass, Corn, Wheat, &c.,

REPUBLICANISM IN KENTUCKY.—The Newport Ky. Daily News is an open and avowed supporter of the Republican party and in a recent number publishes a call for a popular Republican meeting for Madison County, Ky. for the choice of delegates to the Republican national convention at Philadelphia. The call says: "A large meeting is anticipated. Able speakers from the slave cursed soil of Kentucky will address the meeting." And the New, greeting the call, talks thus:—

"Madison county, in this state, has taken the lead: is the first to proclaim to the world that slavery had enemies, and that no state's proprietors of them are at work in its very midst and among its worshippers. This is as it should be! . Heretofore with the exception of a few of the noble minds, who had a love of Justice that knew no fear, men have not dared to speak against the accursed institution, its words above a whisper; for, with the overbearing tyrannical spirit which has always characterized it, mobs and brute force have been its only arguments. The time had at last come however, when reason, together with the broadstream of enlightenment, have overcome the more unchristian, and some of them who have been the most zealous advocates of slavery and its accompanying wrongs, are now its most bitter opponents.—We hope to see a large meeting; a coming together of men who know their rights, and the rights of fellow-men, and knowing dare maintain them. The ball has been started, and our wish is, that it may never cease to roll until the Presidential chair is filled by one who will ever preserve, pure and unsullied, the principles of the Republican party!

This, with the movements at St. Louis for a branch of the Republican organization, are facts of encouragement and mar ked significance.—There is a large party, in all the southern states, and particularly in those bordering on the free, ready to join a united North in putting a stop to the growth of slavery. A strong conservative element, like this, only wants justification and encouragement in the action of parties in the free states to develope its power, which it cannot be doubted will prove adequate to restrain the fanatical ultraism of a portion of the South from the mischief they threaten if slavery is restricted by Congress.

THE NEW LIQUOR LAW. The Gospel Banner, of this week, makes the following judicious remarks respecting the new law and its enforcement. The advocates of the license system should have a fair opportunity for testing the virtues of this enactment, and we are sure the friends of more stringent legislation will throw no obstacle in the way. Let some of the provisions of this law be enforced, and there is no good reason why they should not be, and there will be as great an excitement created among the dealers as when the Maine Law first went into operation. We hope that especial care will be exercised by those who have so strenuously opposed the prohibitory law, to have the present one enforced to the letter. It should be recollected that none but pure unadulterated liquor can be sold at any rate, according to law. Let this provision be faithfully carried out and there will not be enough ardent spirit left in the State to wet the whistle of a grasshopper. But we intended merely to give an extract from the Banner, and not to go into the full merits of the question. The Banner says: Hallowell Gaz.

The Legislature has passed a law to regulate the traffic in Intoxicating Drinks. As with all previous laws on this subject, it has friends and opponents—those who have confidence in it, and those who have not. It becomes the former class to see that it is thoroughly enforced, and the latter to interpose no obstacles in the way of such operations as it may be capable of. Experience will test it. All who truly love the cause will not be tenacious of any particular form of the law, provided it decreases intemperance. If this law does it—and we shall very soon see—God speed it. If not let every friend of Temperance oppose it.—There is one point on which, if enforced, must have a wonderful effect. If the lumseller is made responsible, and punished, for the acts committed by those who purchase his liquors, lumsellers will be scarce, in a short time. We doubt whether this will be done. It ought to be. We hope it will be. But we shall see what we shall see.

One great difficulty with this law, as with former laws, in any attempt to enforce the supposed restrictive features of it, would be found in the inadequacy of the penalties, and in the facility with which their enforcement can be evaded. Still, although we are satisfied that attempts to enforce the restrictions and penalties will be generally abortive, the friends of the law are morally bound to prosecute all violations of the act, or to present the cases for prosecution. We shall see whether this is done, or whether their professions of regard for temperance are mere pretence.

RAILROADS AT CHICAGO.—During two days recently, the eight trains on the Michigan Southern Road brought eighty-one cars, containing 4080 passengers, and at the same time the six trains on the Michigan Central brought sixty-three cars, containing 4662 passengers, nearly 9000 in all, arriving in two days over those two of the fifteen roads terminating at Chicago.

THE SEASON. The Boston Transcript says the season is now more forward and promising in that region, than it was last year at the same period.

LAUNCHED, Monday, from the yard of R. C. [illegible] WEST WIND," of 181 [illegible] She is owned by Messrs. Geo. W. [illegible] Sylvanus Rich, [illegible] ing and Capt. C. [illegible] Dupee of Boston.

She is intended [illegible] as a packet between this city and [illegible] Boston, dispatch line, and will be commanded by Capt. C. Y. Lunt, one of our most successful masters.

The Westwind is a vessel of her class [illegible] has never been built on this river; No pains have been spared by Master Oakes in obtaining the best of materials—a good proportion of white oak and hard pine, and mostly sound timber. She was launched last August, and every part of the work has been thoroughly done under the personal direction of her owner. She was wood, and the joiner work done by Messrs. Norris & Dorrity and the painting by D. Dyer & Son—finishing by S. T. Allen—rigging by D. Green. She is well constructed every way for carrying and convenience, and for facility in handling, and is well calculated for the business for which she is intended.

ETHAN SPIKE. Those inimitable letters have been published from time to time in the columns of the Portland Transcript, have become an office-holder, which it will undoubtedly detract nothing from his well-known patriotism. He is now generally known as Mr. F. P. Whittier of Portland, who has been chosen Clerk of the Common Council in that city. Whittier, however, has shown no Yankeeism in his letters, and we judge that his time is to be spent in the service of personal than political gratifications.

Speaking of the Transcript, we may as well call attention to the advertisement of that paper in another column. For standing as a literary journal is now second to that of no paper in the country. For the fair, discrimination and ability, we know of none which excels it, and we are glad to know that its circulation is in one degree equivalent to its merits. The people of Maine should patronize it in preference to papers from other States.

FIRE AT ELLSWORTH. We learn by Bartlett's Express that the steam mill at Ellsworth, belonging to Mr. Henry S. Jones, was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday evening last, between 10 and 11 o'clock. It contained a planing-machine, grist-mill and other machinery, and was worth from $4000 to $5000. No insurance.

About a thousand dollars worth of lumber belonging to different individuals was also burned.

A new ship on the stocks, belonging to Messrs. J. W. & T. D. Jones, was saved with great difficulty, and only by active and persevering exertions of the excellent engines companies which were promptly on the ground.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Bangor Whig, taking its cue from The Kennebec Journal, has made frequent allusions to alledged secret consulting at Augusta the past winter of the friends of the State administration. We have not regarded such statements and flings for political effect as worthy of any particular notice, and we do not now allude to them for any other purpose than simply to state that the democratic members of the Legislature caucussed during the late session only in a manner common to them and other parties for a series of years.—Democrat.

That the caucuses of the majority have been more secret than formerly is generally understood at Augusta. They have, in fact, partaken essentially of the "dark lantern" character. In the attack upon the Judiciary, it was thought especially necessary to adopt precautions for secrecy in the caucus deliberations; notwithstanding which, the most exact precedgment of that caucus leaked out, as all great crimes perpetrated in secret are sure to be made manifest.

The Rockport Register relates that a child in that place had all appearances, died, and was laid out in the winding sheet upon a board in an upper room. Some time after the father went into the room where the child was, and was astonished at its crying him by name, and complaining that it did not like good. Of course the little sufferer was relieved with a better bed at once.

The Belfast Free Press, in opposition, remarks of the removal of Judge Rice:

"The measure was brought forward by a straight whig and supported by strait whigs generally to the last."

That is a poor way of tarpawing off the responsibility.

HERTFORD CHARTER ELECTION.—There were but two tickets in the field in Hartford on Monday—the "Americans" and Republicans, and the Citizens—the Democrats and Republicans uniting on the latter. They elected the whole ticket by a large majority.

The new liquor bill went into operation on Tuesday, the 15th, at the same time that the act declaring the repeal of the previous law. No licenses can be granted till the first Monday in May. Of course no liquor will be sold without license.

SINGULAR FACT.—Persons who take both the Bangor Journal and the Bangor Democrat have recently observed that after reading one of these papers it takes but a very short time to read the other.

AT LAST.—The New Bedford Common Council, after 30 ballots, has finally elected Mr. Phippe (American) President, one of the opposition members having forgot to vote."

The New York Evening Post, about as old as Democracy itself, has taken form, formally and definitely, the so-called Democratic party.

A northeast storm commenced yesterday afternoon (Monday) with every appearance of affording a much needed supply of rain.

We are indebted to Capt. P. Kimball of San Francisco, for California, Oregon and China papers of the latest date.

The old "Westchester Hills" were covered with snow again on the day morning.

THE WAR IN KANSAS. A Ride to the Border, among New Friends and Strange People. By G. Douglas Brewerton. New York: Derby & Jackson.

We have not been able to examine this book particularly; but it appears to be a lively and rollicking account of a journey to Kansas, and of the famous "War," where-in the Border Ruffians made their redoubtable demonstration against the City of Lawrence, and from which they so mysteriously backed out. The author evidently aims to give an interesting account of his travels, and of the incidents of the journey, including various adventures, and of some of the incidents of the war itself, with its sprightly episodes, rather than to enter into the political aspects of the case. As he went out in the capacity of reporter for the New York Herald, how much he may be supposed to have written, or whether his letters were somewhat tinctured with the "anti-nigger" views of that journal, we do not know.

The book is for sale by Hughes & Co.

COOL.—The Town Talk tells of a rascal who was caught with his hand in another man's pocket, at the Metropolitan Theatre, on Saturday evening, and excused himself thus:

"Now, gentlemen, this is all a mistake—on my honor it is. I never intended to rob that man, and he knows it. When a man is in a crowd, and has his hands in his own pockets, he is just as apt to take by mistake another man's pocket as his own. So it happened to me. I happened to put my hand down in the wrong pocket, thinking it was my own—and it was my pocket, when I found it was another man's. Gentlemen, I didn't mean to obtain any property at all!"—Sacramento Union.

The following letter from Kansas has a curious circumstance. The party who is said to be reliable. The statement is said to be $18,000 worth of diamonds, and their cravings about with their cravats, have "Started the Sailor" however, a kind of SWEETENING OF THE BREATH.—The Monthly Journal Dr. Todd has an article on Cerebral Softening, in which he states, in all such cases the nutrition of the brain becomes impaired, showing itself materially altered consistence. Its color does [illegible] of the nervous matter, its vesicles and [illegible] not undergo any appreciable alteration, even under microscopic observation, but its consistence is diminished, the tissue of the Blood vessels becomes soft and pulpy, in some cases almost creamy. The diseased blood vessels [illegible] this pulpy mass for some time in the midst of going any further change, without; sooner or later, some mental emotion, [illegible] daring some increased heart's action deposits either upon the mental emotion, derangement of the digestive organs, some bodily exertion, [illegible] accreased menta effort of any kind, the blood is sent with [illegible] under force, or in unusual quantity into the vessels, and in consequence of the [illegible] vascular canals in the pulpy portion of the brain being deprived of their usual support, give way, and blood is effused into the tissue being [illegible] opened part of the brain, which it breaks up. And the more readily in consequence of the steady diminished consistence. This is the rationale of the sudden development of many an attack of apoplexy, from which the patient may or may not recover, according to the extent of blood previously softened, and the amount of blood effused.

A BOY STORY.—The present winter has afforded the boys and girls fine opportunities for sliding on coasting, as the hills on the outskirts of the city can testify. But it has not been confined to them or to children of a [illegible] time since when the snow was covered with a smooth icy crust, a gentleman upon Prospect Hill looking out of his window one morning, saw a little dog seated on his haunches sliding down the steep bank before his house. He supposed that the dog had slipped, and was compelled, as many of his betters of the human race, old and young, have done, to illustrate some of the laws of motion upon an inclined plane. But the dog reached the bottom of the bank and run up again in full life to the top, and resuming the same position again slid down. This was repeated as long as the gentleman looked, with apparently as much delight as was ever experienced by a little boy or girl in the same amusement.—Lawrence Sentinel.

AN IRISH SERMON.—Mrs. Mullany ye must die, although ye're so hale and hearty ye must die, that ye must. And you, Mr. Rafferty, must die too, although ye are so lane and so lank, that ye scarce make a shadow when the sun shines, ye must die, that ye must. And you, Mr. Lanshkillen, ye must die too, that ye must. And you, too, Teague McGrabie, for all you are so rosy-cheeked, and are forever making love to the girls at Donnybrook Fair, ye must die, yes, ye must die. I must die too, although I am the pastor of the parish, and have the care of all ye souls, I must die too; and when I shall be coming up before Goodness, and Goodness is after saying to me —"Father Mulrico Lafferty, how is your parish on for drunkenness?" Och, mighty clane, yer honor," shall say, "Och; ness will say, "Father Mulrico Lafferty, how have they paid you their Easter is yer parish off for thatving and such like dues?"—what shall I say for that, ye blackguards.

A HIGH SENSE OF HONOR.—An English nobleman ran away with a lady of fashion, and women, and after she was divorced from her husband married her. Some time having elapsed, his lordship was surprised at not receiving a challenge from her former husband, and being anxious to make reparation, sent the following offer of satisfaction:—"Sir: Having done you the greatest injury that one man can do another, I think it incumbent on me to offer you the satisfaction which one gentleman owes to another in such circumstances." The husband replied:—"My Lord, in taking off my hands a woman who has proved herself a wretch, you have done me the greatest favor one man can do another, and I think it incumbent upon me to offer you the acknowledgements which one gentleman owes to another in such circumstances."

LATER FROM KANSAS. Chicago, April 16.—Advices from Kansas to the 12th inst. The committee appointed by the Free State Legislature to prepare a code of laws, are in session at Topeka. Their report will be presented to the Legislature in July.

The New Haven, Conway had arrived safely. Governor Robinson, who at St. Louis on Thursday,

Can Kansas be Admitted?

From the Savannah (Georgia) Journal.

"The questions of admitting Kansas as a Free State, upon the Topeka basis, which has sent as Senators Messrs Reeder and Lane, and as Delegate Mr. Delahay, has been introduced. An able and influential Massachusetts statesman has declared, in a conversation with a Georgia Representative, that that measure is soon to be proposed, that it will pass the House, that it will pass the Senate, and that the President will not veto it. This may be a matter of opinion only. It has not been thought possible that such a measure could pass through the Senate. But there are few impossibilities. The gentleman who has made this declaration is too well informed and too wise to talk boastfully of carelessly.

We may hence look into the matter as a thing that may happen. But who in the Senate is to yield? Will Senator Houston, of Texas? Probably. Will Senator Bell, of Tennessee? Possibly. Will Senator Crittenden, of Kentucky? There is a possibility of that; and if he does, why will not Senator Thompson, of Ohio State? We think that in that event he will. Then what will Senator Clayton, of Delaware, do? He voted against the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and will no doubt now vote with the same party. Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, is the successor of Gen. Shields, who voted with the South. Senator Harlan, of Iowa, is also an accession to the Free Soil strength.—Senators Thompson and Wright, of New Jersey, may also be regarded as likely to yield to such high pressure. Senator Durkee, the successor to Senator Brodge, of Wisconsin, is Free Soil, and the elder Dodge is in the way of temptation.

The Free States are settling down upon an issue in which those who sympathize with the South are likely to be crushed."

This are even Southern Journals compelled to acknowledge the feasibility of admitting Kansas under her Free Constitution. What stronger proof is needed of injustice, when its opponents confess the difficulty they find in bringing their forces up to the mark of resisting it. Kansas can be admitted into the Union, a Free, Peaceful State, before that Congress adjourns. If she is not, it will be the fault of Northern men, in Congress and out.

If all who wish Kansas made a Free State, unitedly demanded that she should be made one, Congress would not and dare not refuse. But if one part of them is to stand wrangling about Foreigners and the Pope, and another go on trucking and cringing for Slaveholding votes, and a third to stand with folded arms and idle hands, the Senate will pluck up courage, pass Douglas' postponement Bill and send it down to the House. Then the Patronage and the Influence and the Money of the Executive will be freely lavished to "rush it through" that House, as they were lavished in 1850 to pass the Fugitive Slave Law, and in 1854 to pass the Nebraska Bill. If the attempt succeeds, Free Kansas will be laid bound and helpless at the feet of the Border Ruffians, of Missouri, to frame such mock Constitution and atrocious Laws for her, as they shall deem fit.

But we have yet to be convinced that such demoralization of the House, and such apathy of the People, are possible. Recent events do not look like it. The election of Banks and the West—the public Meetings, North and South—the stream of sturdy pioneers of Freedom now setting towards the West bank of the Missouri, all point to a different and a better result. Let Representatives be assured by their Constituents that they are expected to use every constitutional means to defeat postponement and to accomplish Admission. Let Senators be warned that their States expect them to do their duty, and then see who from the North will take the responsibility of opposing the Popular Will.—Albany Journal.

PAPER MONEY IN TURKEY.—It is known that amongst the other changes decreed by the Sultan, is the establishment of a national bank; and the prior question as to the issue of one hundred millions of piastres in paper money is now being strongly agitated. The intended issue is said to be very unpopular, and the principal merchants of all nations have presented a memorial to their respective ambassadors, praying them to use their influence with the Sultan to prevent his giving his final sanction to a step which, it is thought, will seriously impair the public credit. At the beginning of the war, the paper money of Turkey was worth but 87 or 88 per cent. It steadily decreased till it lost 36 per cent. of its nominal value; but since the prospects of peace, the depreciation has been reduced, till it is now only 16 per cent.

SALE OF THE LARGEST COW IN THE UNITED STATES.—The great Durham mixed Cow, for several years owned by William Shephard of the Manchester House, this city, was sold yesterday to Francis E. Hoyt, of Concord, for $500. This cow was raised in Pembroke, and is 7 years old. She gits 9 feet, and weighs 2,760, being the largest cow in the United States.—Manchester American.

Important Notice.

GARDNER CHILSON has just completed a patent in America, England, and France his new invention, the "CONE" FURNACE, and asks the speical attention of those about erecting or remodelling buildings as well as dealers in Hot Air, Steam, or Hot Water Furnaces, and all interested in steam power, to carefully examine this invention, which entirely CHANGES the PRINCIPLE and CHARACTER of HOT AIR FURNACES—developing another and a new principle, and obviating all former objections in their use The practical operation of a number of these Furnaces, erected during the past winter, points out a new discovery in science by which the most wonderful economy in fuel has been attained, and clearly demonstrates that the waste heat that flies from chimneys is enough to warm every dwelling in the city By this invention the heat formerly lost is made to warm the house

This discovery—so simple in itself—is the daily wonder of those who witness its results, and it becomes a matter of surprise that a plan at once so simple and practicable in its operation, should thus far have entirely escaped the notice of scientific men We believe that one and who investigates this principle will be liable to use a Furnace upon construted on any other principle and we would invite all who would witness its operation to call at the store of CHILSON, GOULD & CO,
Nos. 99 & 100 Blackstone street.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending the following valuable inventions in Penobscot county, the same is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it is for that purpose, as it can be safely carried into one minute to warm any bed in the coldest winter weather, and is a cheap and indispensable article in travelling. It is an oil Alcohol, or fluid lamp is protected from every exposure. As a LANTERN, it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be blown out, and can be used as a hand lantern with great advantage.

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in making drinks or medicine warm, besides giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in it in a few minutes, and at a trifling expense of time.

In fact, the various purposes to which this new and valuable apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its use. The general utility and adaptability of the article will be telling what it is for themselves.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

IS A CERTAIN, SAFE, AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weakness, Secret Diseases, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in

MALE OR FEMALE,

from whatever cause they may have originated, and

No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure

Certain and Permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands upon thousands from the hands of

Merciless Quacks,

if not from premature graves. In cases of infection, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing

SAFE CURES.

It contains no narcotic, mercury, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them.

Delays are Dangerous.

With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail.

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent forms of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the patient, to a perfect state of Health and Purity.—And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confirmed and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

—FOR—

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Excess of Mercury, exposure and improprieties in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Shaking Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this, and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two table spoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction, usually made.

—PRICE—

Fluid Extract Buchu, $1 per bottle, or 6 for $5
" " Sarsaparilla, " "

Certificates of cures and recommendations from distinguished professors and physicians, will accompany each preparation exposed and sold by Extract of a letter from Dr. [illegible] Esq. Boothbay Harbor.

To Rev. Walter Clark [illegible]

Dear Sir—I thought of writing to you before, to inform you of the great benefit I received from the use of your Cough Mixture. I had been troubled for two years with a hard cough, which prevented me from sleeping much at night, and was very severe on my lungs, so much so that I was afraid I should not live through the winter. I had taken one bottle of your Mixture before I had used the whole of it my cough was entirely gone, and I have had no cough since. I have recommended it to many persons since, and they have all found relief from its use. I think it the best Cough Mixture in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly.

From Mr. Fletcher [illegible]

Dear Sir—A number of the most eminent physicians have been called in to cure this disease in the place. Several who had been considered past recovery, and others who have been declared incurable, are receiving any benefit from the use of your Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs Hubbard [illegible]

To Rev. Walter Clark [illegible] have used one bottle of your Cough Mixture, and find it a distressing cough and a severe cold, which I had suffered with for several months, and had tried almost all the cure of several physicians without any relief, happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I [illegible] and before I had taken according to direction one bottle, I found relief, and in a few days I was entirely cured.
